

PRESS RELEASE – 6 April 2022

New governance at Schelcher Prince Gestion: Adil AMOR appointed Chief Executive Officer.

Adil Amor, 36, succeeds Sébastien Barbe as CEO of Schelcher Prince Gestion.

Adil Amor graduated from CentraleSupélec in 2010 with a Master of Advanced Studies in Signal Processing (Paris Sud 11) and a Master of Advanced Studies in Probability and Finance (Nicole El Karoui) from the Ecole Polytechnique. After his first experiences at Amundi and Crédit Suisse, Adil joined Schelcher Prince Gestion in 2011; in 2015, he joined BMCE Capital Gestion in Casablanca to create and take responsibility for the Multi Assets department, before joining the OCP group to set up the group's strategic and financial planning department. In 2020, he returned to Schelcher Prince Gestion as Chief Risk Officer then Deputy CIO.

"Schelcher Prince Gestion now manages €7.5 billion, and our management strategies are based on both listed and unlisted assets. We aim to consolidate our current positioning while expanding our product range to meet the needs of our partners in an unprecedented economic and financial context. Calibration and conviction remain the strong DNA that characterises Schelcher Prince Gestion", Adil Amor says.

Sébastien Barbe, who sits on the Crédit Mutuel Arkéa group's Executive Committee, comments: "Adil Amor knows Schelcher Prince Gestion inside out: its business lines, its teams, its history, its management philosophy, etc. I am deeply convinced that, with the support of all the company's teams and the Crédit Mutuel Arkea group, he will be able to bring Schelcher Prince Gestion even further forward. I wish him all the best in his new mission."

"I am delighted with the appointment of Adil Amor. I am convinced that he will be able to further develop Schelcher Prince Gestion with the entire team. Adil's expertise in the various asset management functions as well as his deep knowledge of the financial markets will be an important asset for Arkéa IS", says François Deltour, Chairman of the Executive Board of Arkéa Investment Services.
